Richard at the third digs his way up to the top!

Richard at the third digs his way up to the top at Radcliffe On Trent Golf Club. 28 points on the card sees him have his first win of the year. A very interesting round. Looking at his card it seems he likes to score on the last 3 holes of each nine. Each of the last three he scored 14 points. A handicap of 30 is far too much with that swing.

In second place and is the current leader in the Caratella Cup in my final year was Phil with 26. A great front 9 but am sure he would have been disappointed with only 9 on the back, On his way to his sole second place he beat Dave P in the matchplay to progress into the semi-final. In the semi-final he meets yours truly. This will be a great game and am sure will also be most enjoyable. In third place on countback on the day was actually Dave P. A splendid 23 points he was consistent on both 9's but not enough to beat Phil.

Once again, I would like to thank our guests for joining us and making the numbers up. Without them our numbers would be embarrassing to say the least. I would encourage all of you to invite guests to the events.

The scores are very indifferent at the moment. I am sure once everyone is playing a bot more often these will be improved. Perhaps an odd game here and there would help too.

The course? The course was so easy to get to. I must say I enjoyed it and would make another visit there given the chance. Greens were true, consistent and quick. Some very interesting holes and the fairways were good too. I think it was enjoyed by all. However, I did get a comment that the breakfast we had was the best so far and for a while. Where's Steve when you need an insight on breakfasts?

We were well looked after from booking the course to the day itself. Well done Radcliffe. Just a shame we couldn't bring anymore players.

I think everyone now is looking forward to St Mellion at the moment. It's not that far away now.

We move onto the next event which is Beedles Lake on Sunday 22nd June 2025. Please get your monies into me if you intend to go. See you there.
