Phil your new shoes

Phil McShane fills his new golf shoes with 35 points at Bromsgrove. His first achievement (as expected) was to get the shoes at a bargain price, then after that he decides to rip the course up whilst playing all innocent and redirecting our attentions to someone else. Mr. McShane, well done on all counts. A splendid round whilst sober (that is also an achievement) that quite clearly went under the radar. We seem to have winning scores of 35 points lately which is great as normally I have to whisper the scores out as not to let the course members know in case they laugh when someone wins with 25 points. Phil amassed 35 points (16 front and 19 on back) with 2 no returns on the front. After 4 holes he only had 4 points, then the afterburners kicked in. New shoes were kicking (not literally) and we see him playing some of his best golf and hopefully feeling better. Second sees Sean with 32. Hitting 16 and 16. He even birdied the last hole. Tony comes in with a sound 31. 16 and 15 respectively and just being pipped for second on the day by Sean. The course was in great condition and playing very well. Greens were fabulous. Breakfast and service was faultless too. We always have a good experience every time we have been there and thus for this reason I have rebooked for next in September as our last one. It's also easy to get to unless of course you miss the turning off!!! The Matchplay is finally coming to a conclusion, but not without quite a few walk overs. Never had so many. The last few standing are battling it out, and we are now at the semi-finals stage with Stuart Oliver v Rob Luxton (all square at Bromsgrove), who will hopefully have another go at Elton Furze and Dean Tranter v Steve Moore. Just a brief reminder to get in touch with Phil regarding presentation evening. Get your table booked now. In the next month or so we will start to look at menu's etc. The venue and entertainment have already been booked. If anyone fancies sponsoring an event or anything to do with the Society please feel free to come forward. Don't be shy. It will be greatly appreciated. A big thank you to the Oliver brothers who have come forward and kindly offered to for next year's nearest the pin prizes, i.e. all the wine. The next course is Elton Furze, a new course for us so I have no idea what to expect. Brief details are below. As usual please get your monies into me urgently for this. I suggest you all check the time, date and venue as it seems I have been muddling things up. If things are wrong or don't seem right (not your swing) let me know. Hope to see you all then.
